

PRINCIPAL'S REPORT

Dear Parents and Carers

It is my pleasure to report on another fortnight of activities at the college.

The Year 7 camp was a great success and further supported positive relationships to be developed between students and their teachers.

Our Year 12 teachers and students had sessions with our Melbourne University colleagues around analysing the 2022 student outcomes and also supporting this year's students with strategies for achieving their best in 2023. To support our students to achieve their best, please remember that Year 11 and 12 students can attend study night in the VCE centre on Wednesday's from 3.30pm to 4.30pm. This is a wonderful opportunity to be supported by teachers and to make time to complete tasks and assessments.

Professor Jane Bertrand attended the college and met with our early years' educators and junior years teachers. It was an opportunity to discuss continuity of learning for our students throughout their learning journey from kindergarten to Year 12.

Our Annual Book Fair has been well supported by our families again this year and my thanks to Mrs Cook for organising the fair. It is also a fundraiser for our college, as we receive a percentage of the sales in books for our libraries.

Thank-you to those families who participated in the Clean Up Australia Day project on 5th March. It was great to see the surrounding streets that border the college getting attention on this day.

Student-led conferences are on the Tuesday 4th April running from 11am to 6pm and I encourage you to book in via the Compass Portal when you receive advice that the bookings are open.

Enjoy the long weekend and we will see all students on Tuesday 14th March, ready to learn.

It is important that all students attend school each school day. It is very easy to miss essential learnings and it becomes difficult to catch up on lost learning. If you need any assistance around encouraging your child to attend school each day, please contact Mr. Christy Rilen on 57711300.

Grade 5/6 News

Today 5/6B shared our mystery narratives. Lachlan and Bailey read out their first copy with gusto and invited their peers to provide constructive feedback to further entice the reader. Well done to all students on their resilience and ability to continue working in order to excel at the task.

Today a handful of students from 5/6B used their culinary skills to peel and stew apples. Watching their handy work and listening to the respectful banter between them was an insight into the minds of this age group. Later, the students arrived back from a delicious taco lunch to find a masterfully prepared apple pie and cream dessert. It was an excellent opportunity for students to build friendships and enjoy an activity which was different from the usual classroom learning environment. A big thank you to Jager and Ella for cleaning up the dishes and kitchen so meticulously!

Inclusive Education

Inclusive Education would like to say Thank You to the Lions Club of Seymour Goulburn for their generous donation. Because of this kind donation we were able to purchase a communication board for the inclusive education yard. Students were excited about being able to communicate their needs to staff while out in the yard. We would also like to thank Burgess Signs for the manufacturing and installation of the sign.

BERRY STREET

A little of your time can change an entire life.

In Victoria, the number of children who cannot live safely at home has risen every year over the last 10 years. Children in care have experienced trauma — they need a safe, nurturing home environment to help them recover.

If you are over 21 and have a spare bedroom, we would love to hear from you. As a foster carer, you could make a huge difference to a child or young person in need.

Careers

Part time paid work behind the camera!

Real-Life, paid part-time work for those interested in film.

Hi my name is Sam Saracino – co-director of Sports Focus Videography which is based in Shepparton within the Goulburn Valley. Fellow director, Wes Cusworth and I have had a proud history of running this business for 15 years, servicing football and netball clubs by the way of recording their senior games of a weekly basis.

To do this we have engaged high school students across the region that are interested in creative arts/visual arts/media to provide them a real life working experience behind the camera. Not only have the students worked behind the camera, but they have had to hone their people skills while on site filming the game to ensure the vision is shared with the competing clubs before they departed the film location.

For that to occur we are looking for anyone who has a passion for videography preferably – but not essential to get behind the camera in games in Seymour.

Equipment and training is provided. Please note that this is a paid opportunity for students. You must be reliable and available to work on Saturdays.

For more information or questions about the opportunity please give me a call on 0412 866 250.

CONSTRUCTION INDUCTION (WHITE CARD) TRAINING

30TH MARCH AT SEYMOUR COLLEGE. INVITE FOR YEAR 10 STUDENTS ONLY.

CAPACITY FOR 20 STUDENTS ONLY. FIRST IN FIRST SERVED.

CAN ONLY APPLY IF STUDENT TURNS 15 YEARS BEFORE 30TH MARCH.

What is the Construction (OH&S Induction) Card?

The Construction (OH&S Induction) Card (CIC) training establishes general, industry-wide OH&S training and is a requirement for all people who work on construction sites, both domestic and commercial. The training was established by unions, employer associations, the Victorian Workcover Authority and the Office of the Chief Electrical Inspector and finalised by the Victorian Construction Industry Training Agreement in January 2001. As of 1st July 2008, all White cards are issued through WorkSafe, Training will be carried out by the CFMEU at Seymour College. One full day.

You will be required to bring photo identification to the course. At the end of the training, the CFMEU will issue you with a Statement of Attainment for CPCCWHS1001 Prepare to Work Safely in the Construction Industry.

What does the course cover?

The objective of the training is to provide workers with an overview of basic OH&S principles and legislation, an understanding of hazards, risks and control measures, emergency procedures and an introduction to industry schemes and agreements. As the training is competency-based, workers will be required to complete assessment tasks demonstrating basic awareness of health and safety in the construction industry.

Who needs to do the course?

Everyone who is on any site in Victoria needs a Construction Induction Card (except for those working in an emergency capacity). This includes people doing both work experience and apprenticeships.

Studying the Bachelor of Engineering (Honours) at RMIT

The Bachelor of Engineering (Honours) degree allows students the opportunity to explore the fundamentals of engineering — science, mathematics, design, and more — before selecting a specialisation.

Students gain a wealth of engineering skills and knowledge, and through their elective subjects are exposed to a range of specialisations.

After their first year of study, students will be able to choose which branch of engineering to explore in more depth, including:

- aerospace engineering
- automotive engineering
- biomedical engineering
- civil and infrastructure engineering
- chemical engineering
- computer and network engineering

- electrical, electronic and telecommunications engineering
- environmental engineering
- mechanical engineering
- manufacturing engineering
- mechatronics engineering
- sustainable systems engineering.

RMIT is ranked 10th in the Oceania region for Engineering in 2023.

The VCE prerequisites for entry are Units 3 and 4 with a study score of at least 30 in English (EAL) or at least 25 in English other than EAL, and Units 3 and 4 with a study score of at least 20 in any Mathematics. This course has a guaranteed ATAR of 75.00.

Further information can be found at Bachelor of Engineering \(Honours\).
